

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, August 13, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Corrections chief resigns

In Miss., it's data vs. virus

Hosemann suit claims defamation

Caucus eyes African-American representation in child welfare

O'Neill upbeat about economy

Mortgage-lease program to hike home ownership

Editorials

Tort reform: Many questions, not many answers

City budget: Only being off 1 percent is not bad

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Suits driving rates up, insurers say

Corrections chief resigns

State program to help low-income home buyers

'Fight the Bite,' state campaign warns

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Johnson resigns as state corrections head

Musgrove hopes for federal funds to fight West Nile

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

State prisons chief resigns

Miss. program to assist low-income home-buyers

Miss. prepares to 'Fight the Bite'

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

'Caution' is best way to fight virus

Laurel Leader-Call

Health officials: Lack of knowledge creates unwarranted fear

Mississippi economy believed to be sound but scared

Doctors list reasons for leaving state

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

Enterprise Journal McComb

Mississippi economy OK but nervous

Report examines reasons doctors go

Judicial campaigns raise concerns

The Greenwood Commonwealth
West Nile not provoking sense of panic
Doctors give reasons for leaving state
Schools do better than critics think

The Natchez Democrat

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

The New York Times
West Nile and Its Lessons for Doctors

The Washington Post
A Long Road of Broken Promises for Black Farmers
Elvis Lives

The Washington Times